General Skilled Migration (GSM) visas

Details

Applicants for the following points tested GSM visas must have a suitable skills assessment for their nominated occupation:

- Skilled Independent visa \(subclass 189\) – Points tested stream
- Skilled Nominated visa \(subclass 190\)
- Skilled Regional \(provisional\) visa \(subclass 489\) – Invited Pathway
- Skilled Work Regional \(provisional\) visa \(subclass 491\)

To be invited to apply for a points tested visa, you must have nominated an occupation that is on the relevant skilled occupation list for that visa subclass.

When you submit your visa application you will need to provide evidence that you have a suitable skills assessment for your nominated occupation. You must have obtained a skills assessment by the time you are invited to apply.

Your skills assessment must also be valid at the time you are invited to apply for a points tested visa. Validity periods are calculated as follows:

- If no validity period is shown on a skills assessment, the assessment is valid for 3 years from date of issue,
- If the validity period shown on a skills assessment is less than 3 years, the assessment is valid for the period stated on the assessment,
- If the validity period shown on a skills assessment is more than 3 years, the assessment is valid for three years from date of assessment.

You are encouraged to arrange your skills assessment well before you intend to submit your Expression of Interest (EOI) in SkillSelect. You cannot rely on a skills assessment that was obtained after you were invited to apply.

Skills assessing authorities may issue more than one type of skills assessment. You must have a skills assessment that meets the requirements for permanent migration. The criteria that an assessing authority uses for the different types of skills assessments is determined by them, set against their relevant professional standards.

Some assessing authorities issue a provisional skills assessment for recent graduates of Australian educational institutions, who are applying for a subclass 485 visa. A provisional skills assessment issued for a subclass 485 visa application is not a suitable skills assessment for a points tested visa application.

Doctors

For doctors, evidence of full registration is a suitable skills assessment. We accept one of the following certificates issued by the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) as evidence of full registration:

- full/unconditional/general medical registration
- conditional specialist registration – this registration allows you to practise only in your particular speciality, with no further training or supervision requirements.

Solicitors

For solicitors, evidence of admission to practice as a lawyer in the relevant State/Territory is a suitable skills assessment.

Skilled occupation list

The following visas are available to individuals who are qualified to work or train in an eligible skilled occupation in Australia and can meet all other requirements:

- Employer Nomination Scheme \(ENS\) visa \(subclass 186\)
- Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme \(RSMS\) visa \(subclass 187\)*
- Skilled Independent visa \(subclass 189\) – Points-tested stream
- Skilled Nominated visa \(subclass 190\)
- Training visa \(subclass 407\)
- Temporary Skill Shortage \(TSS\) visa \(subclass 482\)
- Temporary Graduate visa \(subclass 485\) – Graduate Work
- Skilled Regional \(Provisional\) visa \(subclass 489\)
- Skilled Work Regional \(Provisional\) visa \(subclass 491\)
- Skilled Employer Sponsored Regional \(provisional\) visa \(subclass 494\).

The combined list specifies:

- the Australian and New Zealand Standard Classification of Occupations (ANZSCO) code for each occupation. The ANZSCO provides information on the skill level of jobs, qualifications and/or experience needed to work in occupations
- caveats which exclude the use of the occupation in certain circumstances (applies to the ENS and TSS visas only)
- whether the occupation is included on the Medium and Long-term Strategic Skills List (MLTSSL), the Short-term Skilled Occupation List (STSOL), the Regional Occupation List (ROL) or the Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme (RSMS) ROL List.
- the assessing authority for skills assessments

A current list of eligible skilled occupations can be found in a legislative instrument for the relevant visa program.

The RSMS ROL list is a separate list of occupations that applies to the RSMS visa only.*

To respond to changes in the Australian labour market and regional variations across Australia, the list is reviewed regularly by the National Skills Commission.
