Assessment Requirements for BSBATSIL413 Review and apply the constitution

Modification History

| Release | Comments |
|-----------|--|
| Release 1 | This version first released with BSB Business Services Training Package Version 1.0. |

Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to:

- communicate effectively with others to ensure the constitution meets legal requirements and expectations of traditional lore
- document constitutional amendments according to workplace policies and procedures
- follow the constitution when undertaking board duties.

Note: if a specific volume or frequency is not stated, then evidence must be provided at least once.

Knowledge Evidence

To complete the unit requirements safely and effectively, the individual must:

- explain the concept of community control of organisations and how it may impact provisions and application of the constitution
- describe cultural context in which Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander boards operate, including their role in upholding traditional and cultural values, and how that may impact content and application of constitution
- identify legislation and funding body requirements that can impact provisions of constitution
- list geographic, social, economic and political contexts in which particular organisations operate and how these may impact provisions and application of constitution
- explain how to put provisions of constitution into practice, in particular provisions about elections, membership, conduct of meetings (particularly annual general meetings) and reporting
- outline sources of support that can provide advice on legality and practical operations of aspects of the constitution.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a safe environment where evidence gathered demonstrates consistent performance of typical activities experienced in the regulation, licensing and risk – ATSI governance field of work and include access to:

- participation on an actual or simulated board
- expert knowledge and resources relevant to constitution
- examples of constitutions used by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations.

Assessors must satisfy NVR/AQTF assessor requirements.

Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to:

- obtain appropriate consultancy services that meet legal and organisational requirements
- monitor and review consultant's performance against relevant criteria
- provide feedback on consultant's performance.

Note: If a specific volume or frequency is not stated, then evidence must be provided at least once.

Knowledge Evidence

To complete the unit requirements safely and effectively, the individual must:

- explain concept of community control of organisations and how it may impact the selection of a consultant
- describe cultural context in which Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander boards operate, including their role in upholding traditional and cultural values, and how this might impact the selection of a consultant
- outline development and typical content of terms of reference, milestones and performance indicators
- explain equity and diversity principles as they apply to consultant selection
- identify external skill or competency needs required by the organisation
- describe various forms of contract and contractual obligations for consultants
- identify geographic, social, economic and political contexts in which particular organisations operate and how these may impact the selection of a consultant
- explain recruitment and selection process in relation to obtaining consultancy services
- outline relevant protocols and cultural responsibilities when engaging a consultant
- identify sources of legal advice available and how they can be accessed.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a safe environment where evidence gathered demonstrates consistent performance of typical activities experienced in the regulation, licensing and risk – ATSI governance field of work and include access to:

- participation on an actual or simulated board
- examples of situations where boards may seek consultancy services
- examples of relevant documents.

Assessors must satisfy NVR/AQTF assessor requirements.

|-----------|--|
| Release 1 | This version first released with BSB Business Services Training Package Version 1.0. |

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to manage a patient recordkeeping system within a medical environment and to supervise others. It covers clarifying roles and responsibilities, managing the operation of a patient recordkeeping system, and reviewing and improving the system. The unit does not cover the design of a new system but does cover reviews and improvements to an existing system.

It applies to individuals managing an existing recordkeeping system (and sub-systems within the overall system) in a medical context. It may involve supervising the work of other personnel who implement the system and maintain patient records day-to-day. It also involves working with users of the system such as the health practitioners in the enterprise.

No licensing, legislative, regulatory or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.
